FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

EuroLeadership Workshop set for May 7-10

Leaders representing 17 countries will attend

BERLIN, Germany (April 16, 2010) – International Commission will host its twelfth annual EuroLeadership Workshop for European Baptist leaders, May 7 through May 10. Seventeen (17) European countries will be represented when the group meets at the Seminary of the German Baptist Union in Elstal, Germany.

Jerry and Janice Byrd, International Commission Area Vice-presidents for Western Europe will facilitate the time of planning and preparing for international church-to-church partnerships. Strategies developed at the Workshop are the foundation for all the projects to be conducted in Western Europe.

Scott Corwin, International Commission's European Impact Mission Coordinator, and the pastor of the International Baptist Church in Berlin, will encourage the leaders to partner with other churches in various European countries for shorter "Impact Missions".

About International Commission

For more than thirty-eight years International Commission has been equipping and enabling believers world-wide to conduct church-based evangelism projects in countries and continents other than their own. Based in Lewisville, Texas, International Commission will facilitate almost 200 projects in 2010, the vast majority of which will not include Americans. European churches are being asked to take a lead role in reaching the world for Christ.
